2024 STATE REPRESENTATIVE PLAYER SELECTION POLICY

3. Selectors

- 3.1 Selectors for each team/squad listed in 2.1 shall as minimum consist of the NRL Victoria Pathways and Coaching Manager and the respective Head Coach appointed to team/squad.
- 3.2 The NRL Victoria Pathways and Coaching Manager at their sole discretion may formally appoint additional selector(s) to those in 3.1, including but not limited to assistant coaches, team managers, other NRL and NRL Victoria staff. Should this occur this will be formally notified on team/squad application process for players.

4 Player Selection Conditions

- 4.1 To be selected for any team/squad in 2.1, a player must:
- a. meet the age requirements of the respective team.
  - b. be registered to a NRL Victoria affiliated club.
  - c. play matches for a NRL Victoria affiliated club during 2024 season.
  - d. comply with conditions of registering and participation in any selection trials. (Note 4.2 and 4.3).
  - e. for Victorian U18s and U15s Schoolboys Squads and Teams only, players must be enrolled and attend a Victorian Secondary School and must obtain from their School Principal a signed and completed Eligibility and Verification form, which includes confirmation of age, behaviour, and attendance at school is of suitable standard (as determined by individual player's school) to be a good ambassador for Victorian schools.
  - e. comply with all NRL Victoria codes, policies, rules and regulations, including Code of Conduct.
- 4.2 A player may be selected into a team/squad without having participated in selection trials due to personal or special circumstances. Such circumstances shall only be approved by NRL Victoria General Manager upon application via the NRL Victoria Pathways and Coaching Manager. NOTE: the NRL Victoria General Manager may deem such circumstances to be of a private matter that requires details to be kept confidential.

4.3 All teams/squads in 2.1 shall have a trial that is “open” to all potential participants compliant with 4.1. Additional trials for players on an invitational only basis shall be made at the determination and sole discretion of Selectors. Players may be invited to the additional invitational only trials without having to attend the “open” trials as directed by the Selectors at their sole discretion for reasons identified under 4.2 and/or due to previous performance in Representative Teams.

5. Selection

5.1 Due to the complex, multi-faceted and variable nature of the game, selection will involve subjective assessment by the Selectors. This may not necessarily mean the “best” available participant is selected as there are numerous intangible measures that may come into consideration. This may include, but not limited to, team/squad make up, team/squad cohesion/fit, attitude, behaviour, potential for improvement throughout program, etc.

5.2 Selectors must make themselves available to advise areas for improvement to non-selected players of respective team/squad. This process is not to be used by affected participants for debating merits of selection/non-selection that are subjective and any serious breach by affected participants not compliant with Code of Conduct will be dealt with under that code.

6. Appeal/Dispute

6.1 Any Appeal/Dispute regarding selection must be sent to NRL Victoria General Manager subject to the following:

- a. application is made in writing
- b. appeal/dispute ONLY relates to a discrepancy of process within this policy or application of policy. Any appeal/dispute regarding subjective assessment of Selectors will NOT be accepted.
- c. explicit evidence and/or evidence that is provided from source independent of appellant/complainant is supplied with the application. An expression of views or opinion of selection will NOT be considered as evidence.
