

Club Development Week

Date	Time & Presenters
	6pm		6:45pm		7:30pm		8:15pm
Monday, 3 April 2023	Pathways in Victoria	Tim Auremi Pathways & Coaching Manager	MySideline Club Admin Q&A	Sarah Booth Competitions & Compliance Support Officer - Ipswich RL	Club Info Meeting		Melbourne Storm RISE Program information session for parents	Tim Auremi Pathways & Coaching Manager
	A chance to hear about all the opportunities that exist and are planned for Victoria for both male and female athletes		A chance for club administrators to go over MySideline and ask questions on how to perform certain functions in the system.		Our regular club meeting attended by executives from all clubs.		Tim will provide detail and answer questions on the upcoming Melbourne Storm RISE Programs across Victoria and their importance within our pathway system.
Tuesday, 4 April 2023	Building a vibrant volunteering culture	NRLVIC	MySideline Manager on Game Day	Sarah Booth Competitions & Compliance Support Officer - Ipswich RL	So you're a Ground Manager... Now what?	Angus Street Competitions & Club Development Coordinator	So you're on the match table... Now what?	Scott McNaughton Operations Manager
	The chance to come together, share ideas and strategies around recruiting, rewarding and retaining volunteers.		A chance for team managers and club admins alike to go over the MySideline Manager and how to use it effectively on game day.		Discussing the fundamentals of being a ground manager and the NRL's new online course to help you nail it!		The match table official plays a critical role in managing the game. This session will go over basic requirements within our Rules and Regulations and sharing some handy hints and tips.
Wednesday, 5 April 2023	Female Engagement & Bettering Club Culture	Pauline Poloai Community Engagement Officer, In League in Harmony	Club Social Media Hints & Tips	Simon Rathbone Administration & Content Coordinator	Referee's Q&A Session	Bernard Roache & David Michalowsky VRLRA	Parent Q&A Session	NRLVIC
	Pauline will talk about how we can get more females engaged on and off field at your club and share some valuable tips and tricks on how to make your club a welcoming place for all.		Hints and tips to maximise your impact and reach from NRL Victoria's Content Coordinator, Simon Rathbone.		Bernard and David from the VRLRA will be discussing law changes for 2023, as well as answering any questions you have about all things refereeing and how to get involved from the best seat in the house!		Invite your parents, it's their time to shine and for us to answer their burning questions! Send us through your questions and we'll endeavour to answer as many of them as we possibly can (and will take questions at the end if time permits).
Thursday, 6 April 2023	Child Safety (Compulsory Club Session)	Scott McNaughton & Angus Street	Player Development Framework Q&A	James Hinchey General Manager, Game Development & Education	Injury Reporting & Concussion Protocols	Scott McNaughton & Angus Street	Club Strategic Planning 101	Scott McNaughton & Angus Street
	A compulsory discussion with all clubs (we ask your Child Safe Officers to attend at minimum) to check in on your Child Safety progress and discuss VicSport's new online training platform.		The NRL's GM for Game Development and Education takes you through the burning questions you have about the PDF!		Scott and Angus will take you and your sports trainers through how to submit injury reports through MySideline and the NRL's community concussion protocols.		An opportunity for clubs to be introduced to strategic planning and its importance for a clubs short, medium and long term success.

To register for sessions and submit questions for our presenters, please complete the form at bit.ly/clubdevweek